

“Elite Shipping” is the only option for this product as it requires a box big enough to safely transport accordingly. Clients will be subject to a one time product replacement if it is lost or damaged during transport. “Elite Shipping” will cover up to a maximum of $100 during shipping.

When the client agrees to the quote provided from the information obtained by this document, they will be given a picture of the exact product sample they will be purchasing. When the client approves that the sample meets their standards and expectations, they will then be required to e-transfer the total amount due from the quote provided. This will be directed to nathan.l.macarthur@gmail.com. They will use the password that they chose and wrote on this form to allow KingArthur Woodwork to accept the payment accordingly. The client will be provided the tracking number, date and time that the parcel was handed over to Canada Post.
